On September 7, 2004 the Maine Innkeepers Association held their Annual Stars of the Industry Awards Luncheon at the Harraseeket Inn, Freeport. At the luncheon four of the Samoset Resort associates were honored as Stars of the Lodging Industry

Emily Moreau won in the Recreation/Spa category. She is praised as always willing to step in to help wherever and whenever needed and going above and beyond guest's expectations. The Front Desk/Guest Service winner was Linda Silvia. As Concierge, Linda sees each day as a challenge and faces it with a smile and is an incredible asset. Darlene Joy won in the Housekeeper/Roomkeeper category and throughout her day she is always going the extra mile to help our guests and is a team player. Darlene will celebrate her 30th year with the resort in April 2005. The Food & Beverage winner was Aaron Glover of the Kitchen who takes pride in the quality of each meal that he serves and will go the extra mile to accommodate any special requests that arise.

Congratulations to Emily, Linda, Darlene and Aaron!
